

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

ALL THE NEWS THAT'S FIT TO PRINT

VOL. XXXIV

CLOVERPORT, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 9, 1910.

8 Pages

NO. 35

AGED CITIZEN PASSES AWAY.

E. M. Bartles Dies At His Home
On The East Side Sunday Morning--Lived Here
Nearly Twenty.
Four Years.

REMAINS TAKEN TO OLD HOME

After being in ill health for a lengthy time E. M. Bartles, one of the most honorable and oldest citizens of Cloverport, found relief in death Sunday morning. Mr. Bartles' condition had been failing for sometime and for the last ten years he had not been actively engaged in business.

Mr. Bartles was born in Jonesboro, Tenn., September 3, 1830. The greater part of his life was spent in Meade county, where he made his home at Paradise Bottom and in 1875 he moved to Sterrett's Bottom where he lived many years. From there he moved to this place in 1885, and has always been a conservative and honest citizen. He was in the Union army one year. After he came here he followed the trade of carpentry.

October 5, 1848, he married Miss Abigail Crecilus, who with three children survive, Mrs. Medora Sterrett, Frank Bartles and Mrs. John Ross.

Mr. Bartles was a kind, good husband and loving father. He was a peaceful and unselfish neighbor and had many warm friends in Cloverport.

The remains were taken Sunday afternoon on the boat to Crecilus for interment in the family cemetery. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ross, John Sterrett and Mrs. Bartles, who will return home in a week's time.

Appointed Delegates.

Mrs. A. C. Tanner, Mrs. Fred Ferry, and Mrs. A. N. Simms were appointed delegates by the Ladies Society of the Presbyterian church to attend the ladies' missionary meeting which convenes March 17 at the Presbyterian church in Owensboro.

Hites Run Boys And Girls Get Prizes.

The Hites Run school, which has been so successfully taught by Miss Julia Wroe, has closed. Miss Wroe's work was entirely satisfactory.

The pupils who won prizes for head marks in spelling were: Alice Payne, Everett Allen, Thos. Smart, Lewis Beavin, Eugene Smart, John Blithe, Jennie Smart, Dora Waggoner and Ollie Waggoner.

Miss Wroe has returned to her home in this city.

Making Use of His Boots.

Thos. Smith came out of Hardinsburg recently with 9 pair of gum boots. Last week he came out of Clover creek with two barges loaded with ham timber. Thomas is not a "gum shoe" politician, but better, a "gum boot" timber man.

BEN JOHNSON

Named For Congress Again-
Democratic Committee De- clares Him a Nominee.

Louisville, Ky., March 5.—The Hon. Ben Johnson was renominated for Congress from the Fourth District at noon today at a meeting of the Fourth Congressional Democratic Committee held at the Old Inn. Nine of the thirteen members of the committee were present, and the others were represented by proxy.

The time for opposition to appear against Mr. Johnson expired some days ago, and, under the law, the committee declared him the nominee without opposition. This is the third time that Mr. Johnson has been so honored by his constituents, from the fourth district.

There was a good deal of talk among the members, outside of the committee room about Mr. Johnson's chances for the gubernatorial nomination, and all declared that it was their opinion that he would be nominated for Governor without opposition.

Aftr Mr. Johnson was declared the nominee for Congress the committee unanimously endorsed him for the Democratic nomination for Governor.

BRECKENRIDGE LOSES ANOTHER GOOD MAN.

C. C. Pile Dies At His Home In Southern Part Of The County
Last Week--Leaves A Large Family Well-Known.

BURIED IN HOME GRAVEYARD.

C. C. Pile, one of the best-known citizens of the southeastern part of the county, peacefully breathed his last at his home at Mock on Tuesday, March 1, after a nervous illness of a few weeks. The deceased was born May 10, 1841, near Buras, and was one of many substantial citizens born in that section of the county in those days, there being seven such sons in his father's family, John, James M. and Isaac being the only ones now living.

At the age of twenty-six, Mr. Pile married to Betrie A. Bruder, daughter of Joel Bruder of Custer. The children are: to them: Eight of these, Joel H., of Hardinsburg; Mrs. Molle Alexander, of Custer; Gilbert of Custer; Victor, of Liberty; Alister; and Wade, Homer, Ora and Eliza, all of Mock, together with the mother, surviving.

Mr. Pile was a successful farmer, producing the best and, so caring for his soil that its fertility increased under his cultivation. He was noted for his industry, preferring activity to quiet and knowing no rest except that which comes with sleep and observance of the Sabbath.

Kindness to neighbors, dispensing hospitality at his home, liberally in providing for his family, exerting his influence for higher living, studying his Bible and encouraging others to learn and obey its teachings, were cardinal features of his active life. He was a man whom his section will miss, one whose memory will remain, whose works are living testimony of an exalted manhood, whose good deeds are his greatest monument.

After brief and fitting funeral exercises conducted by his neighbors and co-laborers in good works, Revs. A. A. Shumard and H. H. Baughman, this being his request, his six sons—Joel, Gilbert, Wade, Homer, Victor and Ora—aided by his wife, remain to the family the living ground on the brow of the hill, near the home he had built and in which he and his faithful wife had reared them, the Mecca to which they are always glad to return.

First Experience in Court.
Miss Rebecca Willis was summoned as a witness in the Gregory and L. H. & S. L. R. R. case being heard in Circuit Court at Hardinsburg last week. This was Miss Willis' first experience on the witness stand and interestingly she relates it. While in Hardinsburg she was the guest of Mrs. John Kincheloe.

Stader Moves This Week.
H. L. Stader has bought the livery stable belonging to R. O. Perkins and will move his horses there this week. Mr. Stader is going to fix up the "Black Maria," in fine fashion this spring and along with his good services, he is going to be proud of the public some rigs to be proud of.

Mr. Babbage Secretary.

The Lockport Union-Sun say: "At the ninth annual convention of the New York State Implement Men's Association, held in Birmingham this week, E. H. Babbage of Lockport, was unanimously selected secretary. Mr. Babbage is an officer of the United Commercial Travelers' Association and a leading member of the Lockport council. Throughout the state Babbage is known as a live wire, and wherever he goes it soon becomes known that he represents an electric city that is on the map every minute of the day and night."

Mr. and Mrs. Babbage, visited their Kentucky relatives several summers ago. He is a well-known and successful business man of New York state.

Heard The Call of The Press.

G. H. Anderson, a successful tobacconist of Elizabethtown, was in the city Saturday and called at the News office. Mr. Anderson is a former newspaper man of Tennessee. He said he could not pass by a print-shop as newspaper work was his first love.

HARDINSBURG NEWS IN FULL TO DATE

William McCracken Goes Reluctantly To The Pen.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL NOTES.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST flour.

Dr. Mather made a business trip to Louisville last week.

Marriage licenses: Leslie R Pool, 25, and Shalini Mattingly, 22; Press Milburn 23, and Hester Board, 19; Murray Board, 20, and Etta Brown, 22. The county clerk's office is equipped with a new Elliott-Fisher typewriter, an improvement over the old, which was exchanged for the present. It is being manipulated by David D. Dowell, the only man living.

A few bright days last week were sufficient to fill this part of the world with blue birds, bursting daffodils, shooting grass, marbles, fishing, farming talk, feminine dreams of annual housekeeping, and the first symptoms of spring fever.

Little Virginia Beard, accompanying Miss Sally Richardson of Union Star has gone to New Jersey to visit her aunt.

In the suit of John P. Haswell, Admr. for Emmett Gregory, vs. the L. H. & S. L. R. R., the jury returned a verdict for $6,000. Haswell and F. M. Payton of Louisville were the attorneys for the plaintiff.

The normal is growing, there being additions each week.

Wm. McCracken, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Arthur Beard, left Friday for the Eddyville State prison.

Miss Sarah Deane Moorman, who has been ill at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Murray for several weeks was able to be taken to her home at Glendale Friday.

The lecture, ably given by Prof. Martin at the Court House Friday night, was well attended. The handsome receipts went to The Baptist Ladies Missionary Society.

Court adjourned Friday, after a three weeks session.

Lewisport Best flour for sale at J. H. Gardner's store.

Dave Walls visited Custer Sunday.

John Kasey, a prominent Rosetta citizen, was in town Saturday.

F. P. Stunn and family have gone back to Murry after having spent several months here.

Mrs. Lewis, of Centertown, was the guest of Mrs. Rebecca McGarry, her mother, last week.

Sin McGarry is very ill.

Jesse Whitworth has been suffering severely for a few days. Wm. Smith, of Fordsville and Cleve Brooks are on the witness stand and interestingly she relates it. While in Hardinsburg she was the guest of Mrs. John Kincheloe.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Beard arrived from Florida Monday night. On account of illness Mrs. Beard did not remain in the South as long as she expected.

Rev. and Mrs. E. B. English, of Orlansboro, arrived Monday for a visit of several days.

The High School Baschell Team, composed of High school and Public school students has been organized with Thos. Mather Manager. The players are: Hewitt Dix, Tom Davis, Henry Chamberlin, Dick Soper, Sam and George Monarch, George Marshall, Nat Shellman, and Garland Driskill. The Normal will also shortly join the team.

The High School Baschell Team, composed of High school and Public school students has been organized with Thos. Mather Manager. The players are: Hewitt Dix, Tom Davis, Henry Chamberlin, Dick Soper, Sam and George Monarch, George Marshall, Nat Shellman, and Garland Driskill. The Normal will also shortly join the team.

The Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, No. 100, of Hardinsburg, held their annual meeting Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Babbage, visited their Kentucky relatives several summers ago. He is a well-known and successful business man of New York state.

Jimmy Eakridge of Louisville was here last week visiting relatives.

Among our otherwise unreported sick are Mrs. Barnes, Mrs. John P. Haswell, and the Hon. G. W. Beard.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Beard were visitors in Cloverport Sunday.

Our local physicians here were last week giving daily employment to seventy-five people.

Mrs. Ada Mattingly, of Glendale was the guest of Mrs. Lonnie Smith Sunday.

BEARDSLEY-HEAD

Pretty Home Wedding Takes Place at Lodiburg Sunday Evening—Large Number of Guests Present.

Lodiburg, Feb. 28 (Special)—One of the most beautiful home weddings of the season was that of Miss Elizabeth Head, of Lodiburg, to Mr. Charles Morris Beardsley of Brooklyn, New York. The ceremony took place on February the twenty-seventh. Promptly at four o'clock the bridal party entered the parlor to the strains of Mendelsohn's wedding march, which was beautifully rendered by Miss Margarette Stith. An impressive ceremony was performed by Rev. J. W. Willett. The attendants were: Misses Myrtle Deacon and Ida Belle Ater, Messrs. W. D. Avitt and Malcolm Robertson.

The bride was charmingly attired in an elegant traveling costume of brown broadcloth with hat and gloves en suite.

The bride is the talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Head of Lodiburg. Mr. Beardsley is a young man of excellent character and business abilities.

A delightful repast was served before the ceremony. Guests were laid out in the hall and a plentiful supply of refreshments was served.

The guests from a distance were: Mrs. Forrest Van Meter, Atlanta, Ga.; Mrs. Bertie Board, Henderson, N. C.; J. A. Head brother of the bride, Bowring Green; J. N. Noller, Louisville; Misses Mabel and Nelle Adkison, Orlansboro; and Marguerite Stith, Irvington. The young people left immediately for Louisville for an indefinite stay. May their life be long and sweet.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Polk, of Hardinsburg, were the best man and maid of honor.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected Saturday afternoon. They are as follows: President, Robt. Pierce; Vice-pres. Francis Sawyer; Second vice-pres., Louis Nicholas; Third vice-pres., Helen Miller; Treasurer, Tuia Babbage; Rec. Sec., Ruth Faith; Cor. Sec., Rosa Sippel; Pianist, Elisabeth Skillman; Substitute, Eloise Note; Agents, Jane Lightfoot and Pauline Nicholas.

New Officers.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected Saturday afternoon. They are as follows:

President, Robt. Pierce; Vice-pres. Francis Sawyer; Second vice-pres., Louis Nicholas; Third vice-pres., Helen Miller; Treasurer, Tuia Babbage; Rec. Sec., Ruth Faith; Cor. Sec., Rosa Sippel; Pianist, Elisabeth Skillman; Substitute, Eloise Note; Agents, Jane Lightfoot and Pauline Nicholas.

From Mrs. Temple.

Dear Mr. Babbage: Please change the address of my paper to Greenville. I cannot get along without my home paper have been taking it since 1876. May it continue to grow and prosper are the wishes of your friend, Lucy E. Temple, Greenville, Miss.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT

Befalls John R. Polk While Cleaning His Skiff Sunday Afternoon—Paralyzed Partially.

John R. Polk, of Tobinsport, met with a serious accident Sunday afternoon and as a result he has suffered a stroke of paralysis. Mr. Polk had his skiff standing up high on the river bank and while cleaning the mud from the inside it fell over on him. He was so painfully injured that he was not able to cry for help and an hour and a half passed before any one found him.

This is the second serious accident that has befallen Mr. Polk, and it is feared that this will prove fatal. One time he was rescued from drowning.

Mr. Polk is a well-known farmer and carpenter of Perry county. He is a brother of Robt. Polk, of this city, who has been with him constantly since Sunday.

Prof. Forrest Polk, of Lafayette, Ind., the son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Polk, has arrived to be at the bedside of his father.

Goes West Soon.

Irvington, Ky., March 7. (Special)—Everett Ashcraft resigns his position as assistant Cashier of the First State Bank at Irvington, to take effect April 1st. He will go West in May and continue in the banking business. Mr. Ashcraft is a fine young man and all who know him are his friends. He took an extended business course in Business College at Bowling Green, paying special attention to banking. His special equipment, his genial spirit and natural business ability will be missed by the large number of us who have been in contact with him.

His resignation will be effective immediately for Louisville for an indefinite stay. May his life be long and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry May are receiving congratulations on the arrival of their little daughter, Dorothy Graham May.

The second fine son arrived at the home of Dr. and Mrs. R. R. Rafferty, March the third.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Sippel's home at Irvington was gladdened with a son Saturday.

The little girl who arrived last Wednesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Morrison will be christened Leontine Morrison.

DISMISSED

Was Johnson-Hawkins Case in Police Court By Judge Wills Created Much Interest.

The celebrated cow case, which has been in Judge Will's court for the last six months, between W. N. Johnson, and Chas. Hawkins, went by the board last Monday. Both parties were there with their witnesses all lined up, and announced ready for trial. Johnson's attorney, asked for a continuance, and it was granted. Hawkins, go ahead and prove his account, Johnson objected and said he didn't have to do the plowing, and did not have to walk the tiger. After considerable wrangling, Judge Wills put both parties out of court by dismissing the action without prejudice.

BUYS THE DEMOCRAT

Tim Neelbank, of Williamson, late owner of the Williamson Courier and former president of the Kentucky Press Association, and C. B. Nelson, of Washington D. C. have purchased the Winchester, Ky., Democrat and will enter upon their new duties this week. They paid $12,000 for the plant. Both are practical newspaper men.

Subscribe Right Now.

SAD DEATH'S

Of Two Bright Young Men Of Meade County, Occur In One Week's Time.

Word has been received here by Mrs. Forrest Gilliland that her two first cousins, Elsie and Hubert Hickerson, died at their home at Sirroco, Meade county, within a week's time. Elsie died March 20, and Hubert died March 1, pneumonia causing both deaths.

The young men were the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hickerson, Rev. Judson Hickerson, of Louisville, was called to conduct the funerals.

At Garfield.

The Rev. R. H. Moreland, pastor of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church at Garfield, desires all members of said congregation to attend regular church service Saturday before the second Sunday in March at 2 P. M.

Any lady using Chase & Sanborn's coffee who is planning to give a party in the near future, may secure all the material necessary for a novel and interesting entertainment together with prizes by calling at Nolle's store.

Electric Bitters

Succeed when everything else fails. In nervous disorders, men and female weaknesses there are no adequate remedy, as thousands have testified.

FOR KIDNEY, LIVER AND STOMACH TROUBLE

It is the best medicine ever sold over a druggist's counter.

DR. H. J. BOONE
Permanent Dentist

Dr. Owen's Office, Main Street Hours: 8 to 12 a. m. 1 to 5 p. m.
Cloverport, Ky.

STYLISH, COMFORTABLE Tailor Made Clothes

All the latest patterns for Suits and Trousers in high-grade fabrics. Clothes made by modern methods. Fit guaranteed. Moderate prices. Expert tailors employed.

J. H. HUNSCHÉ,
Gasper, May & Co., Cannelton, Ind.

FOR SALE!

A number of Farms, different Sizes and Prices.

The Bank of Hardinsburg & Trust Co.

H. DeH. MOORMAN,
Attorney at Law,
HARDINSBURG, KY.

Will practice his profession in all of the Courts of Breckinridge and adjoining counties, in criminal cases, suits on contracts, road cases, and criminal practice. License to practice admitted State Bar Courts. Office over Bank of Hardinsburg.

THE LOUISVILLE TIMES

FOR 1910

BRIGHTER, BETTER, BIGGER THAN EVER

The regular price of THE LOUISVILLE TIMES is $2.00 a year. If you will send your order to us, you can get

The reckenridge News
AND THE

Louisville Times

BOTH ONE YEAR

For Only $4.50

The Louisville Times is
The Best Afternoon
Paper Printed Anywhere

Has the best corps of correspondents.

Covers the Kentucky field perfectly.

Covers the general news field completely.

Has the best and fullest markets reports.

Democratic in politics, but fair to everybody.

Send Your Subscription Right Away

to this paper—not to The Louisville Times.

Subscribe!

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

It is well known that children are often ill, if the urine scales the flesh, or if, when the child reaches age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with a weak, feeble, languid condition, the trouble is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant disease is not confined to the kidneys and bladder and not to habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable by kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.

The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is realized. It is sold dry distilled, finely powdered, one-ounce bottles. You may have a sample bottle free also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root.

including many of the thousands of testimonials received from those who found the remedy needed. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake about the quality of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

RAILWAY MAIL PAY

How much does the U. S. pay the railway for the use of these traveling Post Offices in such cases as just referred to?

The equivalent of one passenger fare per round trip.

Can you explain it in figures?

Yes. The U. S. pays 5.5 cents per mile for the going trip, with two to six passengers in it—notthing for return trip, which is the equal of 2.75 cents for the whole distance the car travels.

Why do you call the clerks passengers, and think the Government should pay for their carriages?

Because the Government demands of the railroads the same care and responsibilities as accorded passengers. The men are furnished heat and ice-water and in case of accident the railroads are liable to the same extent as to passengers.

Is it possible you mean that the railroads get 5.5 cents for hauling a full car and in addition are obliged to furnish the Post Office Department with free tickets for say 4 men, worth 2.5 cents a mile each at tariff rate?

That is just what I mean. The rail roads haul the cars free, and pay 4.5 cents a mile for the privilege in such a case.

Why on earth do the railroads do this?

Perhaps they never stopped to think how very foolish such a practice is. Maybe this will start them thinking.

How much do railways receive per mile for hauling empty cars?

Diners, Parlor and Sleeping cars on their own wheels 12 to 20cts. per mile; Passenger coaches 10 to 18 cents; Baggage and Express cars 8 to 12 cents; Freight cars 6 to 10 cents per mile.

Then the railways receive on the average, for hauling various classes of cars on freight trains, from three to eight times as much as U. S. pays on these one-way runs for P. O. cars on passenger trains?

Correct.

Are P. O. cars any real value or service to railroads?

They are not, as their design is fixed by the department, and being Post offices, are unfit to carry ordinary freight.

How much mail does each of these cars carry?

About what would take up one-eighth of an ordinary baggage car, or 2 tons.

How much more can one of these cars carry?

About 15 tons, if stripped of some fittings.

What do express companies pay railways for their privileges?

50 to 55 per cent of their gross receipts.

Do express companies assume all responsibility to its patrons?

Yes.

Do express companies get any extra facilities, such as enjoyed by P. O. firms?

No. On the contrary they contribute toward salaries of station men and train baggage men; release the railroads from claims for personal injuries to employees, handle free to the railroads, remittances and railway express packages. The number of express employees carried on trains is much less than on P. O. cars.

Do express companies make money on the 45 to 50 per cent which is all they get out of their receipts?

They do.

It is stated above that U. S. pays only 20 per cent of gross receipts for railway transportation of mails, and yet the department is operated at a loss?

That's what the report of Post Master General shows.

What is the difference in the method of charging by the express companies and the post office department?

The former charges according to distance; the latter as you know carries letters or other mail matter under postage without regard to distance.

How does the dead weight of cars, carrying U. S. Mail, compare with the weight of the mail handled?

One ton dead weight, to one ton of mail.

How is it with passengers?

About the same.

And freight?

1. tons dead weight to one ton of freight hauled.

Does U. S. pay rent for post office facilities, in cars used partly for baggage or express?

No. U. S. pays only when U. S. has the entire car, and as it then pays less than the fare of the clerks in it, and if empty only 1/2 to 1/3 of what the railroads secure from the public for haul alone it is hard to find the rent.

Who decides when cars shall be exclusively post office?

U. S.

Who specifies the construction of post office cars?

U. S.

Who pays for them?

The railroads.

Do cars, now specified by U. S. cost more than a few years ago?

Standard each weighing 10,000 lbs., cost about 60 per cent more.

Are post office facilities in apartment cars, and full cars, provided for the convenience of the railways?

No indeed. Entirely for post office.

Over how many miles were these full, and apartment cars hauled in 1909?

23 millions of miles.

What is average weight of mail, per car?

2.09 tons.

How much mail can storage cars, without post office fixtures carry?

10 to 15 tons.

Continued next week.

How Good News Spreads.

"I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B. F. Tolson, of Elizabethtown, Ky. "Wherever I go I recommend Electric Bitters, because I love my excellent health and vitality to them. They effect a cure every time." They need only to touch the stomach, regulate the kidneys, help the liver, stimulate the blood, and strengthen the heart and vitalize the blood. They work wonders for weak, run-down men and women, restoring strength, vigor and health that a daily joy. Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction is positively guaranteed by Severs Drug Co.

BLAKE'S VISIONS.

The Curious Hallucinations of the Poet-Painter.

William Blake the contemporary of Charles Lamb, was a man of visions. Blake dined with prophets and held converse with archangels. A friend of Blake called on the poet-painter and found him drawing a portrait with all the seeming anxiety of a man who is conscious of having a fidgetious sitter. He looked and drew and drew and drew, yet nothing real was visible. "Disturb me not," said Blake in a whisper. "I have some one sitting to me." "Sitting to you?" exclaimed the friend. "No, I have no sitter, but he is here." "Who is he?" "He is the Name of Lot. You may know him from the Scriptures. He is sitting for his portrait."

Blake's hallucinations, however, rarely took in malignant form. One of his most beautiful subjects was the "Man who was walking alone in my garden," he said. "There was a great silence among the branches and flowers and more than common sweetness in the air. I heard a low and pleasant sound and knew not whence it came."

"At last I saw the broad leaf of a flower move, and afterwards I saw a pair of green and gray grasshoppers, hearing a body fall out on a rose leaf, while they burred with song and then disappeared. It was a fairy's funeral." —Chicago News.

Does Your Back Ach?

If it does you should know that back-ache is generally caused by weak or diseased kidneys.

"Kidneys" has all its ingredients printed on the label so that everyone may know just what is in it. It is the great kidney and bladder medicine. It stops frequent urination. Druggist and dealers sell it for 50c.

American to Judge Canadian Music Earl Grey, governor general of Canada, has appointed Howard Brockway, the composer, a native of Brooklyn, as judge for the Earl Grey musical and dramatic competitions which are to be open to all Canada and to last a week.

Many ill come from impure blood. Don't have pure blood with faulty digestion, lazy liver and sluggish bowels. Burdock Blood lets strengthen stomach, bowels and liver, and purifies the blood.

They do.

It is stated above that U. S. pays only 20 per cent of gross receipts for railway transportation of mails, and yet the department is operated at a loss?

W. L. DOUGLAS
$3-$350 & $4. SHOES
BOYS SHOES
$2.00
$2.50

THE LARGEST MAKER AND RETAILER OF MEN'S FINE SHOES IN THE WORLD.

"SUPERIOR TO OTHER MAKES."

"In fact, W. L. Douglas is the finest maker of men's fine shoes in the country, and always find they are far superior to any other high grade manufacturer."

"W. L. Douglas, 10 Howard Ave., Utica, N. Y."

"If I could find a better manufacturer, I would do so, but I have found none."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one."

"I could not find a better manufacturer, and I have tried to find one

Car Load of Buggies Just Received

The Latest Styles of Autopon Buggies, Surries and Runabouts at Prices in Reach of all

The largest and Most Up-to-Date line of Hardware, a Full Line of Genuine American Wire Fencing---all widths, Furniture, Plows, Wagons, Stoves, Saddlery, Harness, Collars, Trace Chains and anything you need in the way of Farm Implements and Lumber.

J. D. ASHCRAFT : Irvington, Kentucky

NOBODY SPARED

Kidney Troubles Attack Clover-port Men and Women, Old and Young.

Kidneyills seize young and old.
Come quickly with little warning.
Children suffer in their early years—
Can't control the kidney secretions.
Girls are languid, nervous, suffer pain.

Women worry, can't do daily work.
Men have lame and aching backs.
The cure for man woman or child, is to cure the cause—the kidney.

Dean's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys.

Cure all forms of kidney suffering.

The following testimony proves it.

Mrs. Ann E. Dilman, 419 Crittenden
St., Owensboro, Ky., says: "My son, aged sixteen years, was troubled by weak kidneys. He was compelled to pass the kidney secretions frequently, which was indeed very embarrassing to him. We read of Dean's Kidney Pills and seeing what other people were saying of them, we decided to give them a trial. They have removed the difficulty entirely and he is now in good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 25c.
Poste-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Dean's—and take no other.

COURT THREATENED

Letter Written in Italian Was Sangu-narily Embellished.

New York, Feb. 25.—Judge Ray of the U. S. district court here, who presided at the trial of Ignacio Lopez and his gang of Mexican counterfeiters and sent them to prison for terms ranging from thirty to fifteen years, received while the trial was on what purported to be a black hand letter written in Italian and saying, in rough translating, that the prisoners are not liberated until we like a dog. We have killed better men than you or Smith or Flynn."

Smith is Abel I. Smith, the assistant
United States district attorney, who prosecuted. Flynn is Captain W. J. Flynn of the local federal secret service, who was in charge of the investigation.

The text of the letter was reinforced with sketches in ink of a heart pierced with a dagger and drops of blood falling from the wound. Two revolvers were drawn pointed at the bleeding heart and a black dot was drawn upon each revolver letter was posted in this city. Judge Ray turned it over to the postoffice inspector.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Dean's Regulates, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulates bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

Appreciates The Notice.

My dear Mr. Babbage: We received a February 23rd issue of the "Breakenridge News," and note the nice things you say about our Catalog, which we appreciate very highly, coming from such a good Critic. We have already commenced to feel the good results from our work. With kindest regards, we remain, Very truly yours, Louisville Paper Co.

Prove What Swamp-Root Will Do For You.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Blinghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will contain 1 oz. You will also receive a booklet of information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder.
When writing, be sure and mention the "Breakenridge News." For sale at all drug stores. Price fifty-cents and one-dollar.

OUT OF THE ORDINARY

Senate Much Impressed WI's General
Gordon's Farewell Address.

Washington, Feb. 25.—One of the most interesting and instructive events of the day's occurrence in the senate was the farewell address of Senator James Gordon of Mississippi, who has been serving by the appointment of the governor since the death of Senator McLaurin, and whose successor has recently been elected by the Mississippi legislature. The address was out of the ordinary.

It dealt with war reminiscences of personal experiences and was enlivened by occasional dashes of humor and at times when it appealed for a cessation of sectional feelings, was pathetic. Some of the more ardent Mississippi colleagues and many of those anti-slavery Republicans listened with interest.

Itching, torturing skin eruption, disfigure, annoy, drive one wild. Dean's Ointment brings quick relief and lasting cures. Fifty cents at any drug store.

Greatly Appreciated.

The Louisville Times published in its issue of February 19, last, a very well written and attractive article, listing the prominent and able Kentucky women who are engaged in journalism. Its author is Miss Louise Babbage, who herself comes well within that description. The article has elicited much favorable comment from a number of newspapers. Miss Babbage is a charming personality, as well as a gifted, talented writer, and she is known as "The Sweetheart of Kentucky Press," a somewhat too collective title perhaps for the unattached editors of the State. The Leader wishes her great success in her chosen field of Journalism.—Fourth District Leader.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Frauds of Languages

A people who are denominations known as "folk etymology" is responsible for some of the queerest freaks of language.
An easy example will make this clear. Our American word "car-ryall" for a kind of vehicle is not a compound of "carry" and "all," but a slight distortion of the French "carriole." This word was made in imitation to assimilate to the American tendency to assimilate the unknown to the known, to make words mean something by associating them with others which they resemble in sound. Often there is an etymological relation between the words associated, as when Spanish "carrion" means "dead body." This particular corruption was once in such good colloquial use that Walker, the lexicographer, wrote,
"Sprawngress is so general that a paragrus has an air of stiffness and pedantry."

Wants The Best Papers.

Dear Mr. Babbage: as we can not get along without the News. You will find enclosed $1.50 to renew my subscription to News and weekly Courier Journal for one year. Yours Respectfully, S. A. Davis, Garfield, Ky.

Ask Them About It.

For many years physicians and nurses have considered Kemp's Balsam the best cough remedy. Every druggist and dealer in medicine sells and recommends Kemp's Balsam. Ask the doctor, the nurse, or the druggist about it. It is for cough, irritation of the throat, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles. The price is 25c, a bottle.

SHE READ HIS SECRET.

Which Led Him to Express an Opinion on Married Life.

A young man from Kansas City was talking to a young woman from the same town whom he had met by accident at a matinee in the theater. The young woman was married. The young man asked her if she was married.

"You've heard that we're to have a new theater back home?" the woman asked to make conversation.

"Oh, of course," the young man answered. "I get all the news. I get a letter from Kansas City every day."

"The letter began to laugh.

"So when you go back home for that vacation you're going to be married?"
she mused.

"How did you know that?" the man
cried. "We be told we wouldn't tell.
And now she's—"

"You told me you were married," the woman said. "You see, no matter how long for there may be of you or your months or years or your mother or father, none of these would send you a letter every day. There's only one person who writes a letter every day, and that's a girl who's engaged to be married." For the rest of my sentence I added two and two."

"You're right," the man mused.
"Say, a married man must have to play close to the bases. It must be like living with a mind reader."—Roster Herold.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

NOTICE

When sending a news item to this office, please make it as brief as possible, so we can have room for all the news.
Telephone us your locals and items of interest.—Editor.

Subscribe today.

A CHILD GENIUS.

Amperie Dabbled in Mathematics at the Age of Three.

Amperie, who left his home to the science of electricity, was a child genius.
At the age of three he had taught himself to count with his fingers, and had found out for himself a good many of the theories of arithmetic. At this age he became very ill and was three days denied food. At the end of the fast he was given a biscuit, but instead of eating it he broke it up into pieces to count with.
He often occupied his mother's considerable time in getting rid of these pieces.

He read everything with avidity.
His mind did not run in one channel, and he waded every volume that came in his way. When he was ten or twelve years old he had read every work of a certain author. The librarian told him in amazement that the books were in Latin. The boy went home chagrined, for he did not know Latin, being a sickly child and held back from books as far as possible, but after six weeks he appeared again, holding the library in grand style.

Amperie is one of the few child prodigies who seems to have been sickly.
He finds fits from time to time, while most child wonders appear to have been physically normal in every respect. Exchange.

HIS CRITIC.

What distinguishes the visiting Briton most is the manner in which every kind of banditage to the United States adapts himself to the prevailing ideas about England. In the course of conversation with the noble nation who condescend to Brighton shows the visitor the footbridge that he was an Englishman—and English men have great respect for Indians and had entertained Garibaldi in grand style.

"Ingotes! Ha, ha! Ingotes!" said Diego in soft, musical tones. "Ha!
They spon no good. Dey droppa da litcheh!"—Exclaiming.

Doctors Failed Again—The Great Kidney Remedy Saved Him.

McMinnville, Tenn.,
July 1st, 1909.

Dr. Kilmer & Co., Birmingham, N. Y.
Gentleman—About ten years ago I suffered severely with inflammation of the neck of the bladder and was also troubled considerably nights by numerous desire to urinate.

One night I was compelled to get up from my bed nineteen times. I had several doctors but their prescriptions seemed to have but little effect. At last upon the recommendation of a friend I tried Swamp-Root and found immediate relief.

I began to get well after the first half dozen doses, and am now in an ordinary state of good health. I consider Swamp-Root cured me and I believe it is a fine tonic and an unrivaled bladder remedy. You may publish this statement at any time or place you may wish.

Yours very truly,
M. T. Bostick.

Subscribed and sworn to before me in my office at McMinnville, Tenn., this July 1st, 1909.

W. A. Johnson,
Notary Public.

Notice

That resolutions of respect are published at 5 cents per line.
Please do not send obituaries to the News without expecting to pay for the publication of this kind of matter.

S-U-B-S-C-R-I-B-E

An Event of Great Importance to Every Man, Woman and Child is Our Spring Opening

We invite you to inspect the magnificent materials in every line we have just received.

New Dress Fabrics Silks
Spring Ginghams
Laces
Embroideries
Corsets

Shoes

The largest and most complete line ever handled in Irvington.
You should make your selection of spring shoes early to get the best fit : : : : :

Novelties
Matting
Lace Curtains
Bleached Sheets
Bed Spreads
Etc., Etc., Etc.

Men's and Boy's Clothing

Wonderful Opportunities in All Departments

L. A. JOLLY, -:- Irvington, Kentucky

THE BRECKENRIDGE NEWS,

JNO. D. BARBAGE SONS' PUBLISHING CO.

Issued Every Wednesday.

Subscription Price $1.00 a year in advance.

CARDS OF THANKS over five lines charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line.

OBITUARIES charged for at the rate of 5 cents per line. Money in advance.

Examine the label on your paper. If it is not correct please notify us.

When ordering a change in the address subscribers should give our old as well as the new address.

EIGHT PAGES.

CLOVERPORT, KY., WEDNESDAY, MAR. 9, 1910

"We can not change yesterday—that is clear,
Or bring on to-morrow until it is here;
So all that is left for you or for me
Is to make to-day as sweet as can be."

THIRTEENTH TERM MAYBE UNLUCKY.

Word comes from Washington that Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson's service in President Taft's cabinet is to be brief. The retirement of Secretary Wilson is believed to be imminent because of his testimony in the Ballinger-Pinchot hearing before the Congressional committee. On the stand the Secretary clearly showed that his management of the department was very inconsistent during the controversy between the Forestry Bureau and Secretary Ballinger. And too, the letter that Secretary Wilson trusted Pinchot to write to Senator Dolliver on "department matters", caused much damage from the fact that it contained an attack on the President.

This insult to the President having been delivered and read in the Senate, threw a dangerous light upon Secretary Wilson as well as Pinchot, which may soon develop as the secret of Wilson's expected resignation.

Secretary Wilson is 75 and his ambition to serve in the Cabinet longer than any other man is being gratified for he is now serving his thirtieth year. No wonder he was not alert in the Ballinger-Pinchot affair!

Pigeon Roost, Slick Creek, "Africa", The Chute, Tin-Can Alley and Eastland on the East Side and Cowheel, St. Rose Court, Breckinridge Addition and The Hill on the West Side, are of little importance to the news gatherers of Cloverport at present. Shawneetown at the mouth of Clover creek is crowded with interesting and popular visitors. The iron boat anchored there last week and everyone is busy gathering together old stoves, coal buckets and old rags to sell to the rubbage man. One woman, whom we had always considered an excellent financial manager for her household, surprised us last week by selling him several of her husband's and son's coats for the minute sum of 25 cents. Any colored man would have quickly paid her no less than one dollar for each garment. There seems to be a peculiar inclination in trading with the iron man.

We are always glad to welcome the rubbage man for he clears the

The Facts About Peru-na.

Is Peru-na an alcoholic beverage in disguise? Is it possible to use Peru-na as a substitute for whiskey? Do people buy Peru-na and use it as today, or a bitter, or a brazier?

It would be the easiest thing in the world for any one to demonstrate the falsity of such statements. Let any one go to the drug store and purchase a bottle of Peru-na. Let him undertake to use it as a beverage, or take this remedy in doses considerably larger than those prescribed on the bottle. Would the result be alcohol intoxication? Nothing of the sort. Let any one try it and see.

Peru-na is a medical compound quite heavily loaded with medicinal ingredients. If taken in doses larger than prescribed it would produce a positive drug effect. No one could take it as a beverage. If any one doubts these statements, try it and see. We know that Peru-na cannot be used as a beverage; that it will not intoxicate; that it cannot be used as a substitute for liquors. We guarantee that PERUNA CONTAINS NO CHEAP WHISKEY OR ANY OTHER WHISKEY, for that matter.

It contains a small per cent. of cologne spirits, absolutely essential to dissolve and hold in solution medicinal ingredients, but the drugs contained in Peru-na prohibit its use as a beverage. It would be the easiest thing in the world for any one to demonstrate this if they chose to do so.

Peru-na is sold everywhere. THE INGREDIENTS ARE PLAINLY PRINTED ON EACH BOTTLE. It is a well known fact among chemists that chemists have analyzed Peru-na and found it to contain only cubes and whisks. Now we challenge any chemist to demonstrate any such statement. Let any one who has even a smattering knowledge of chemistry purchase a bottle of Peru-na and see whether or not it contains whiskey and cubes. Of course, cubes is one of the ingredients of Peru-na, but there are many other ingredients. It contains hydrastis canadensis, cordyline formosa, camomilla, and at least four other medicinal ingredients. To be sure, no chemist could so analyze Peru-na as to be able to identify the various medicinal ingredients. This is beyond the ability of any chemist. But any ordinary chemist would be able to say that Peru-na is heavily loaded with medicinal ingredients of some kind in addition to cubes.

Now why are these statements repeated when their falsity could be so easily demonstrated? Simply because there is continued hostility toward Peru-na on the part of the medical profession. Very likely the magazines which took up the crusade against Peru-na and denounced it as a cheap beverage were misled by statements of the medical profession. Probably they were sincere in their efforts to do so. But now, after all these things have been said and refuted, it would seem to be in order for such people to use a little plain and common sense in the matter.

Every time any one says that Peru-na is nothing but cheap whiskey and cubes he is telling a lie, absolute falsehood. Most people intend to speak the truth. But the prevalent habit of repeating other people's statements, without investigation as to their truth, has led many well-meaning people to say these false things about Peru-na.

Used according to the directions on the bottle, PERUNA IS A SAFE AND RELIABLE CATARRH REMEDY, but, like any other good medicine, if taken in excess of those doses, it will produce drug effects very unpleasant to the person who takes it.

It is therefore up to every honest person to quit making such statements concerning Peru-na, or acknowledge that he is repeating slanders about which he knows nothing. One might just as well say that Castor Oil is an intoxicant; that if taken in large enough doses it will operate as a "boozey." If people never tried to see, but simply repeated such statements about Castor Oil, the majority of people would come to believe them. It is no easier to demonstrate such statements about Castor Oil than it would be about Peru-na.

Any one who takes Peru-na knows that such statements are false. To say that Peru-na is cheap whiskey and cubes may constitute good material for jokes on the vanquish stage, but there is no excuse for any one who pretends to be truthful saying over again this oft-repeated falsehood.

Thinking of a New Dress or Skirt for Easter?

EASTER is a time in the year when everyone dons the new Spring clothes; in fact, it would not be the gala day if it were without the new, bright and pretty clothes that bedeck the person and makes one feel that the glad springtime is here. Our new materials have arrived, and we are safe in saying that we never had a more beautiful or varied assortment.

SERGE AT 50c YARD

French and Storm Serge, in all the new and staple shades, also black; 36 inches wide.

42-in.
Materials
75c
Yard

Fancy Gray Worsteds
Plain French Serge
Plain Storm Serge Shadow Stripe and Check Serges

SILK POPLIN $1.25 YARD

42-inch Silk Poplin, in all new and staple shades, also black; very pretty and serviceable for dresses or skirts.

42 & 48 in.
Materials
$1.00
Yard

Serges, Panamas and Satin Cloths, in black and Colors, also grey mixtures; 42 and 48
inches wide.

Silks Are To Be The Most Favored Fabric This Spring

36-in. Black Taffeta 98c

Superior quality, justle finish; guaranteed woven in selvage; suitable for one-piece suits, separate waist and skirts. Splendid quality silk for 98c.

19-in Fancy Silks 59c

In hair-line stripes, shepherd checks and fancy figured effects; all the season's new combinations, yard 59c.

19-in. Satin Messaline, 59c

Messaline is always good; in all the new and staple shades, also white, cream and black; 19 inches wide, at the very low price, 59c.

Rough Pongee Silks, 75c

Pongees are very popular for the one-piece dress and coat suits. This silk is 27-inches wide and comes in all shades, also white and black.

24 TO 26-INCH FOULARD SILKS

In a new and big variety of this season's best styles, also plain grounds with the staple dots, priced as follows:

50c, 59c, 65c, 75c and 85c Yard

330-334 W. Market St.
213 Fourth Avenue
Louisville, Kentucky

J. BACON & SONS
ESTABLISHED IN 1845
INCORPORATED

Mail Orders Given Prompt and Careful Attention

streets, store rooms and cellars, and instills in our bones an ambition for spring cleaning. Let us clean up our yards and get ready for the violets and Easter lilies!

It would be very wise for the magazine lovers to write to Congressman Ben Johnson to push the Carter Bill which for the second time is now presented to Congress. This bill provides for imperatively needed reforms in the Post-office Department that will be necessary before the magazines get a square deal. If this sorely needed legislation is not forced, we who subscribe for the magazines will have to foot the postage bills for the publications. The government is needlessly extravagant in sending out so much printed matter that is never opened after it reaches its destination and is only a bunch of mail that is expensive for the government to handle. The increase of postage rate that falls on our magazines is outrageous and we, as a people, should not allow it. Courteous letters written to Congressman Ben Johnson will receive consideration and everyone, by all means, should request him to look after the Carter Bill.

Col. Henry Watterson says, and 'tis true, that "It is measure, not men, that stir our wrath. It is the one-party power that we contest. The country needs every once in a while a change of parties. It needs a change now for the sake of the change. On general principles, the Republicans need a good licking. They need it especially to recall them to the sense that there is a country, a people and a God."

A copy of the March number of the Taylor-Trotwood magazine came to our desk this week, and we are pleased to mention it to our readers as one of the most delightful publications we know. Its success is the greatest that has ever happened in the literary circles of the South.

If you fail to renew your subscription when it expires your paper must be discontinued, matters not whether you are our next door neighbor or first cousin. Under the new postal laws, the subscription manager is no respecter of persons.

McGavock's School District.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

The farmers have been quite busy deviling their tobacco since the recent rains.

Miss Mary Brown, of Victoria, passed through here Saturday enroute to Clovertown and Dukes to visit relatives.

William Humphrey was in Clovertown Monday.

Miss Hattie Beatty visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Matthews, of Victoria, from Saturday until Monday.

We are all quite encouraged over the pretty, warm weather we are having at present and the farmers think they can soon begin their spring work in earnest.

Several around here have whooping cough and mumps.

Hugh McGevern was in Cloverport Friday.

Mrs. James Larkin and children Mary and Thomas, were the guests of Mr. J. M. Beatty Thursday.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head.

It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the air-passages. It is made to overcome the disease, not to fool the patient by a short, deceptive relief. There's no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggists sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

There was quite a large crowd attended the sale at Henry Davis' Friday.

Mr. Davis will leave at once for O'Kellys to visit Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of near Bewleyville, came down Friday to the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherford.

Robt. Weatherford and daughter, Miss Bessie R., and Master Taylor Gray went to Hardinsburg Thursday.

Mr. James Payne is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Alexander have moved to their new home in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are both fine young people and may their future days be filled with happiness and sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brumington left Tuesday for Stearnsport, where they will remain three weeks.

Miss Ola Gray is ill at this writing.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock died Friday and was buried at the Scott grave yard.

Mr. Payne of Hites Run, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Bettie Beard, left Friday for Lewisport to spend sometime.

Misses Little and Della Baker were in town Friday shopping.

Mrs. L. A. Davis went to Hardinsburg Wednesday.

Mrs. Allie Weatherford has returned home after spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Green.

Misses L. A. Davis and Jennie Payne were the guests of Mrs. O. R. Payne Saturday.

Mrs. Jessie Nix, is spending a few days at Germantown the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nix.

There are several cases of lagrippe in and around our town and doctors are being kept busy.

M. J. Beatty and son, Joy, of near Cloverport, were here last Monday on business.

There was quite a large crowd attended the sale at Henry Davis' Friday.

Mr. Davis will leave at once for O'Kellys to visit Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hayes.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of near Bewleyville, came down Friday to the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Weatherford.

Robt. Weatherford and daughter, Miss Bessie R., and Master Taylor Gray went to Hardinsburg Thursday.

Mr. James Payne is on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Alexander have moved to their new home in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are both fine young people and may their future days be filled with happiness and sunshine.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brumington left Tuesday for Stearnsport, where they will remain three weeks.

Miss Ola Gray is ill at this writing.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Glasscock died Friday and was buried at the Scott grave yard.

Mr. Payne of Hites Run, was in town Tuesday.

Miss Bettie Beard, left Friday for Lewisport to spend sometime.

Misses Little and Della Baker were in town Friday shopping.

Mrs. L. A. Davis went to Hardinsburg Wednesday.

Mrs. Allie Weatherford has returned home after spending several days with her mother, Mrs. Jennie Green.

A pair of doll shoes or slippers free to every little girl that gets papa, mamma, sister or brother to buy their shoes or oxfords at Noite's during the next 30 days.

For Infants and Children.
The Kind You Have Always Bought

Bear the Signature of Charles H. Hite

A Reliable Remedy FOR CATARRH

Ely's Cream Balm

a clothing store in Louisville, spent Sunday at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chapin. He is doing well and has the promise of success.

Mrs. Gross, of Holt, is visiting Mrs. Filo Dehaven.

Mrs. J. P. Simons, of Tobinsport, Ind., was here yesterday.

Mr. Bush, Wm. Claycom, Harry Gano and Preston Ford were in the city Saturday.

The Epworth League will give a social to the members Thursday night in the reception rooms of the church.

The spring hats and Easter materials at Mrs. Cordrey's will be different from any goods brought into Breckenridge county this season as they were all bought in Chicago and Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chapin were host and hostess to a beautiful dinner at their home Sunday. The guests were: Miss Lettice Chapin, of Cincinnati; Wilbur Chapin, of Louisville, and Miss Auntie Jennings of this place.

H. E. Miller, of Union Star, was here Friday to meet his brother, Dr. Miller, of Patelsville. Mr. Miller is a prosperous farmer of Breckinridge, who said hogs are selling higher now than they have since 1920.

The line of preparations specialized by the Franco-American Hygiene Company is said to have a more superior character than it is a pleasure for the United States Health Report to give them editorial endorsement. These toilet articles are sold by Mrs. James Cordry.

Henderson Route Notes.

Annual Session Ancient Order Of The Mystic Shrine New Orleans, La.

Refused fares from Cloverport to New Orleans and return April 8-10-11. For further information call on agent.

One way second and mixed class tickets fares to California and the north west, March 1st to April 15.

BIG FIRE

John Matthews Loses Home, Meat House and House-Hold Furniture--Loss $1500

John Matthews home, house-hold goods and meat house were destroyed by fire Monday morning at 12 o'clock. His loss was $1500 or more and he had an insurance of $500. Origin of fire not known.

Mrs. Wells Better.

Mrs. Wells, who has been so critically ill during the last few weeks, is showing wonderful vitality. Her son, Capt. Kay, and his daughter, Mrs. Lovejoy, of Evansville, have been here to see her.

H. H. Kemper Resigns as Cashier Of First State Bank--Will Move West.

Mr. H. H. Kemper has sold his stock in the First State Bank of Lexington to Mr. C. M. McGilligan of West Point and has resigned his position as Cashier to take effect April 1st. He will be succeeded by a very fine young man and an excellent cashier Mr. Jesse Payne of West Point. There will be other changes in the officers of the bank.

H. H. Kemper's friends will be numerous late to see him leave the Bank and Lexington. He has been a great factor in the progress of that town and will be missed. He is a progressive, liberal, enterprising citizen. Has always been ready and willing with his means and his influence to help along his town in any and all enterprises that build and make towns. Mr. Kemper and his excellent wife will both be missed in Lexington.

Our Post-Master Has Grand Time Up The Pike.

Post-Master Oelze had a most delightful time at Hardinsburg this week and some of the goods will be opened Saturday.

Moses Eva and Elizabeth May gave a pretty wedding party for Miss Georgia White a guest, Miss Keen Lewis and Miss Daisy Dean, Saturday evening of this week.

Char. Furrow, who has suffered with rheumatism all winter, is able to walk round in his immediate neighborhood. Furrow hopes to get "up" in own soon.

Mrs. Folk goes to Cincinnati next week to buy her millinery goods. And will have an opening in time for Easter. Miss Fanny Walton, of Barberville, will trimmer.

The Breckenridge News.

WEDNESDAY, MAR. 9, 1910

For Congress.

We are authorized to announce Col. Ben Johnson, of Louisville, for the election to Congress against the action of the Democratic Primary to be held March 12, 1910.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL

Mrs. Reem Pate has been ill.

Nat Taul was in town Monday.

Mrs. C. W. Batterfield is improving in health.

Mrs. Cleona Weatherholt entertains this afternoon.

Mrs. Joe Sawyer and daughter, Jane, were in Louisville last week.

Beautiful your Laws with Nolite's Fancy Blue Gram get it today.

Mrs. Wm. Boucher, of Lewisport, was the guest of relatives Sunday.

Miss Jean Todd, of Owensboro, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bowmer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cordrey have returned from Chicago and Evanston, Ill.

Miss Ray Beyser has gone to Evansville, Ill., to be the guest of Miss Linne, D. H. Huy.

H. E. Tyson, Pittsburgh, Pa., was the guest of Miss Carrine Pate the first of the week.

Mrs. Chas. Moorman, of Versailles, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bowmer.

Mrs. Esther Frank, of Evansville, Ind., came Saturday to visit relatives at Mattingly.

Chas. Crary, of Middleport, Ohio, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Murray Sunday.

Herbert Lyle, Cooney Severs and Herbert Burns, of Union Star, have gone to California.

Mrs. Abe Skillman entertained the Ladies Club most delightfully Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lucette Hendrick is going to Newton, Kans., soon to visit her brother, Dr. Sexton.

Wm. Head, Tie Inspector of the L. H. & St. L., was a welcome visitor to Cloverport yesterday.

Mrs. Ryan, who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Perkins, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherley Benmann, of Meade county, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barry Sunday.

Robert E. Pierce went to St. Louis last week and then to Shawnee, Okla., to visit his brother, Murray Pierce.

Evansville and Tobingsport Oil and Gas Company, are to put down two test wells for oil. Start building rig today.

See J. H. Rowland about twenty payoffs and twenty year endowment policies on the monthly payment plan.

Jas Brown, of Rockport and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Brown, of St. Louis, were visiting Mrs. Watt Jarboe last week.

Mrs. A. L. Foit's friends will be gratified to learn that she is convalescent after serious illness of two weeks or more.

Mr. and Mrs. David Phelps opened their home in "Pigeon Roost" Wednesday evening to the young society people of Cloverport.

W. E. Wroe, who is making his home with his son, Thos. L. Wroe, is improving. Mr. Wroe has had an attack of grippe.

Mrs. Daisy Dean, of Glendale, and Miss Keen Lewis, of Fordsdale, have returned after a pleasant visit to Mrs. R. Fisher and friends.

Mrs. Thos. Bohler has had a very serious attack of grippe. Her daughter, Mrs. Wilbur Gregory, was called from Louisville last week to be with her.

Spring delivery purchased in Chicago and Cincinnati is being received by Mrs. Jas. Cordrey this week and some of the goods will be opened Saturday.

Moses Eva and Elizabeth May gave a pretty wedding party for Miss Georgia White a guest, Miss Keen Lewis and Miss Daisy Dean, Saturday evening of this week.

The Stockholders of the Breckenridge Farm Association met here Monday and elected the following directory: H. M. Beard, Chas. H. Drury, Jesse Howard, Mike Miller, W. R. Moorman, Jr., Flesley Miller, C. V. Robertson, Percy M. Beard, John O'Riley. These directors will meet here next Saturday to elect officers for the ensuing year.

Miss Nell Moorman, of Glendale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. R. Murray.

Wibor Chapin, who has a position in

a clothing store in Louisville, spent Sunday at home with Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chapin. He is doing well and has the promise of success.

Mrs. Gross, of Holt, is visiting Mrs. Filo Dehaven.

Mrs. J. P. Simons, of Tobinsport, Ind., was here yesterday.

Mr. Bush, Wm. Claycom, Harry Gano and Preston Ford were in the city Saturday.

The Epworth League will give a social to the members Thursday night in the reception rooms of the church.

The spring hats and Easter materials at Mrs. Cordrey's will be different from any goods brought into Breckenridge county this season as they were all bought in Chicago and Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chapin were host and hostess to a beautiful dinner at their home Sunday. The guests were: Miss Lettice Chapin, of Cincinnati; Wilbur Chapin, of Louisville, and Miss Auntie Jennings of this place.

H. E. Miller, of Union Star, was here Friday to meet his brother, Dr. Miller, of Patelsville. Mr. Miller is a prosperous farmer of Breckinridge, who said hogs are selling higher now than they have since 1920.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Chapin were host and hostess to a beautiful dinner at their home Sunday. The guests were: Miss Lettice Chapin, of Cincinnati; Wilbur Chapin, of Louisville, and Miss Auntie Jennings of this place.

H. E. Miller, of Union Star, was here Friday to meet his brother, Dr. Miller, of Patelsville. Mr. Miller is a prosperous farmer of Breckinridge, who said hogs are selling higher now than they have since 1920.

The line of preparations specialized by the Franco-American Hygiene Company is said to have a more superior character than it is a pleasure for the United States Health Report to give them editorial endorsement. These toilet articles are sold by Mrs. James Cordry.

Henderson Route Notes.

Annual Session Ancient Order Of The Mystic Shrine New Orleans, La.

Refused fares from Cloverport to New Orleans and return April 8-10-11. For further information call on agent.

One way second and mixed class tickets fares to California and the north west, March 1st to April 15.

BIG FIRE

John Matthews Loses Home, Meat House and House-Hold Furniture--Loss $1500

John Matthews home, house-hold goods and meat house were destroyed by fire Monday morning at 12 o'clock. His loss was $1500 or more and he had an insurance of $500. Origin of fire not known.

Mrs. Wells Better.

Mrs. Wells, who has been so critically ill during the last few weeks, is showing wonderful vitality. Her son, Capt. Kay, and his daughter, Mrs. Lovejoy, of Evansville, have been here to see her.

H. H. Kemper Resigns as Cashier Of First State Bank--Will Move West.

Mr. H. H. Kemper has sold his stock in the First State Bank of Lexington to Mr. C. M. McGilligan of West Point and has resigned his position as Cashier to take effect April 1st. He will be succeeded by a very fine young man and an excellent cashier Mr. Jesse Payne of West Point. There will be other changes in the officers of the bank.

H. H. Kemper's friends will be numerous late to see him leave the Bank and Lexington. He has been a great factor in the progress of that town and will be missed. He is a progressive, liberal, enterprising citizen. Has always been ready and willing with his means and his influence to help along his town in any and all enterprises that build and make towns. Mr. Kemper and his excellent wife will both be missed in Lexington.

Our Post-Master Has Grand Time Up The Pike.

Post-Master Oelze had a most delightful time at Hardinsburg this week and some of the goods will be opened Saturday.

Moses Eva and Elizabeth May gave a pretty wedding party for Miss Georgia White a guest, Miss Keen Lewis and Miss Daisy Dean, Saturday evening of this week.

Char. Furrow, who has suffered with rheumatism all winter, is able to walk round in his immediate neighborhood. Furrow hopes to get "up" in own soon.

Mrs. Folk goes to Cincinnati next week to buy her millinery goods. And will have an opening in time for Easter. Miss Fanny Walton, of Barberville, will trimmer.

Miss Nell Moorman, of Glendale, is visiting her sister, Mrs. D. R. Murray.

Wibor Chapin, who has a position in

For Pain in Chest

For sore throat, sharp pain in lungs, tightness across the chest, hoarseness or cough, lave the parts with Sloan's Liniment. You don't need to rub just lay it on lightly. It penetrates instantly to the seat of the trouble, relieves congestion and stops the pain.

Here's the Proof.

Mr. Fred Fries, Kann., says: "We have used Sloan's Liniment for a year, and find it an excellent thing for sore throat, chest pains, colds, and fever attacks. A few drops on sugar stops coughing and sneezing instantly."

For Sale - Real Estate

FOR SALE - House and lot in Cloverport

Cottage 5 rooms and summer kitchen; all necessary out buildings. J. K. MILLER,

Cloverport, Ky.

Earn $100 Monthly

AN intelligent person may earn $100 monthly at home. No canvassing. Be your own master. For application, write to: J. T. MARDL, Painesport, Ky.

Start Mail Order Business

ANYWHERE, anywhere, can start a mail order business at home. No canvassing. Be your own master. For application, write to: J. T. MARDL, Painesport, Ky.

Wanted - Miscellaneous

Wanted appropriate bodies. For particulars and price, write or call on Chas. A. Thrus, Steepleport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - English Kitchen

FOR SALE - English kitchen situated in Cloverport, Ky. Good house, well worth the money invested. Pay well amount invested. Apply to John Welsonburg, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Sweet Clover Seed

If you want a fertilizer, grading of hay, plant Sweet Clover. 1 lb. will plant over 1000 ft. Write for particulars address J. T. Mardl, Painesport, Ky. R. R. #4.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - English Kitchen

FOR SALE - English kitchen situated in Cloverport, Ky. Good house, well worth the money invested. Pay well amount invested. Apply to John Welsonburg, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

Farm for sale in Blackford Bottom, Hancock County, 150 acres in who e tract but will sell 50 acres at a bargain. O. E. Friel, Cloverport, Ky.

For Sale - Farm

The Lure of the Mask

By HAROLD
MAC GRATH

Copyright, 1908, by the Bobbs-Merrill Co.

What humans are chiefly hunting for nowadays is inspiration in one form or another. This story cannot fail to give its reader inspiration, and therefore its value can hardly be overestimated. The magic of the love of man for woman, that, aroused simply by the sound of a voice, causes a young millionaire to cross oceans and traverse foreign lands to find his fate was never better pictured. The story is intensely romantic and alluringly mysterious. The insidious evils of unwise marriage with foreign "noblemen" are cleverly shown, and the familiar Italian brand of intrigue is laid bare. The author shows that the reward of patience and purity is happiness and that the wages of sin is death. He makes you laugh when he pictures the adventures of an American comic opera troupe stranded in foreign lands. He makes you thrill with the wonderlust when he describes La Bella Napoli and the vine covered slopes that run the Mediterranean.

CHAPTER I.

OUT of the innumerable night clubs, full and round, young yet immature, sweet and mysterious as a night bird, haunting and elusive, there was youth in it, the touch of spring and the breath of flowers. The music was Leo'sque's that is to say, French—but the tongue was of a country which Hillard knew to be the garden of the world. Presently he observed a slender figure from the shadows low mist, to come within the circle of light, which, faint as it was, blazed in amidst the nothingness beyond, the form of a woman. She walked directly under his window.

As the woman moved slowly out of the gloom he became distinctly apprehensive whether make or not he did this unknown castratino come out of the fog that might enter into Hillard's life, to readjust his ambitions, to divert its aimless course, to give impetus to it and a direness which hitherto it had not known.

"Ah!" he said.

He leaned over the sit at a perches angle, the bright coal of his pipe spilling comet-wise to the airway below. He was only unconscious of having spoken, but this syllable was sufficient to spur him to a second, more vacuous sleepiness, with an odd look. The singer looked up. Possibly her astonishment surpassed even that of his audience. For a few minutes she had forgotten that she was in New York; she had forgotten the pain in sight, that she had been only an irresistible longing to sing.

Though she raised her face, he could distinguish no feature, for the light was behind. However, he was a man who made up his mind quickly. Brunette or blonde, beautiful or otherwise, it needed but a moment to find out. Even as the question was asked, he was in the upper half taking the stairs two at a bound. He ran out into the night hereabout. Up the street he saw a flying shadow. Plainly she had unfeigned his impulse. She was gone. He cupped his ear with his hand in vain. There was nothing but fog and silence.

"Well, this doesn't beat the Dutch," he murmured.

He laughed dismally. It did not matter that he was three and thirty. He still retained youth enough to feel chagrined at such a trivial defeat. Here had been something like a genuine adventure, and it had slipped like water through his clumsy fingers.

"Darn it, this doesn't beat the Dutch," he murmured.

But reason promptly asked him what he should have done had he caught the singer. Yes, supposing he had, what excuse would he have had to offer? Who could she be?

peculiar whimsical freak had sent her shuddering past his window at 1 o'clock of the morning? A grand opera singer? A prima donna? A famous actress? But he dismissed this opinion even as he advanced it. He knew something about grand opera singers. They attend late suppers, it is true, but they ride home in luxurious carriages and never risk their golden voices in this carelessness of romantic fashion. As for being comic opera stars, he refused to consider possibility, and he relegated this well satisfied conclusion to the darks of Illebo. He had heard a voice.

A policeman came lumbering over to add his verdicts quota of interest in the affair. Hillard wisely stopped and waited for the "old hen" to peep over a woman's shoulder, the guardian of the law said roughly.

"So did I?"

"Huh! See her?"

"For a moment," Hillard admitted.

"Well, we can't have none o' this in the streets. It's disorderly."

"I'm not disorderly," he said, rather annoyed at the policeman's tone, "you don't think for an instant that I was directing this operetta?"

"Think? Where's your hat?"

Hillard put his hand over his head. The policeman had to take his hands off to get the ribs with his fingers.

"An' how was she dressed?"

"In for all I could see."

"On the level now, didn't you know who she was?" The policeman gave Hillard a sly dig in the ribs with his fingers.

"On my word?"

"Some sweet, mebbe."

"Unquestionably a lady. That's why it looks odd—why it brought me into the street. She sang in classic Italian. And, what's more, for the privilege of hearing that voice again I should not mind sitting on that cold curb till the milkman comes around in the morning."

"That wouldn't be for long," laughed the policeman, taking out his watch and holding it close to the end of his cigar. "Twenty minutes after I, Well, I must be gettin' back to me beatin' heart."

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned. He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall. A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovanni. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not change I shall want my riding breeches to tomorrow morning."

"Always rains here," Giovani remarked.

Hillard passed over the cigar, and

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I was troubled with falling and inflammation, and the doctors said I could not get well unless I had an operation." "I know you could not understand the strain of one, so I wrote to you sometime ago and you sent me some of your compound, and you told me what to do. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I am today a healthy woman. Mrs. Mrs. Anna, 60, W. 21st St., Memphis.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day is used throughout the land for the treatment of actual cases of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham office, Lynn, Mass., from women who have suffered from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulcers, abscesses, plaques, fibroids, tumors, varicose veins, piles, hemorrhoids, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

"A little?" Hillard laughed. "For seven years you have received fifty American dollars every month and our compound has not cost us as many copper cents in the mail. I am certain that you have got the cure to stay away in your stocking-a-term."

"Buy in lots," he said, "for the doctor's books!"

Hillard saw the twinkle in the black eyes, but never had he told truth fully, "Now, give me that old book."

"Romance, drama, tragedy, comedy,

"Feminine, domestic, spiritual, religious, for the traveler's pleasure. I am a peasant, but always remember the blood of the Caesars. Who can say?"

Besides, I have held a sword for the church. I owe no allegiance to the pony house of Savoy!" There was no twinkle in the black eyes now. There was a ferocious gleam. "Pardon, signor. I grow boastful. I am old and should know better. But does the signor know that he is a good man?"

"I don't know, Giovani; I don't know. What's on your mind?"

"Nothing new, signor," with eyes cast down to hide the returning lights said Hillard shortly.

"I am as the good God made me. Besides, the holy father will do something for one who fought for the cause."

"We will certainly not countenance bloodshed, Giovani."

"I can solve it."

"I was in hopes you had forgotten."

"Forgotten? The signor will never forget. He is a very rare and youthful and innocent. She sounds like the nightingale. Up with the dawn, to sleep with the stars. We

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned.

He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall.

A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovani. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close

four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not change I shall want my riding

breeches to tomorrow morning."

"Always rains here," Giovani remarked.

Hillard passed over the cigar, and

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned.

He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall.

A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovani. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close

four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not change I shall want my riding

breeches to tomorrow morning."

"Always rains here," Giovani remarked.

Hillard passed over the cigar, and

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned.

He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall.

A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovani. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close

four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not change I shall want my riding

breeches to tomorrow morning."

"Always rains here," Giovani remarked.

Hillard passed over the cigar, and

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned.

He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall.

A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovani. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close

four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not change I shall want my riding

breeches to tomorrow morning."

"Always rains here," Giovani remarked.

Hillard passed over the cigar, and

"I was born there," patiently.

"No! Why, you're no good."

"Not so much as an eyeash. The stock happened to drop the basket there, that's all."

"Ha, I see! Well, Ameriky is good enough for me an' mine," complimented Hillard.

"I don't say!"

"An' if this stogy continues to be have we'll say no more about the van-tilin' leddy."

The policeman strolled off, his suspicions in nowise removed. He knew many rich young bachelors here, and if it was a chorus girl, why it was a prima donna, which was not far from being the same thing.

Hillard regained his room and leaned with his back to the radiator. He had no idea. It was rather green and blue, but as soon as his hands were warm he determined to put this idea into immediate use. The voice had sounded deeply, stirred him with the longing to hear it again, to learn what extraordinary impulse had lured the song.

Never the winter came with its weary round of rain and fog and snow that his heart and mind did not fly over the tideless southern sea to the land of his birth if not of his blood—Sparto, that jewel of the sun-baked cliffs!

With a quick gesture of both hands Latin, always Latin—he crossed the room to a small writing desk, turned on the lights and sat down. After several attempts he realized that the letter he had in mind was not the simplest to compose. There were no patriotic efforts before he produced anything like satisfaction. Then he stole downstairs, around the corner to the local branch of the postoffice and returned. It was only a blind throw, such a drowsy sometime in the darkness. But chance loves her true gamester, who to him she makes a faithful servant.

He picked up a novel. "I should be sorely tempted to call any other man a silly ass. Leddy Lightfinger—it would be a fine joke if my singer turned out to be that he irregular person."

He fell to reading, but soon yawned.

He slid the book into a corner, drew off his boots and cast them into the hall.

A moment after his valet appeared, gathered up the boots and waited.

"I want nothing, Giovani. I have only been around to the postoffice."

"It was in the door open and close

four times, signor."

"It was in the fog. If this fog does not

Has Just Declared 15% Dividend on Its Stock Citizen's Life Insurance Company

W. H. GREGORY, President

LOUISVILLE, KY.

IRVINGTON TO HAVE FIVE NEW HOMES.

Many Beautiful Parties Given In
The Last Few Days—Jottings
Of Interesting News, Much Doing.

MANY PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

A white sale is on at Edd Alexander's store this week, which is proving quite a success.

Miss Lizzie Hall, of Webster, was a visitor of Mrs. Matt Payne last week.

Miss Lettie Schindler, who has been in Louisville the past winter, came Wednesday and is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schindler.

A corn crib belonging to Edd Trippet was on fire near Bewleyville Sunday night.
The loss is about fifty bushels of corn.

Mrs. L. B. Moremen will entertain the Girls' Club on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Mary Lynch, of Horse Branch, has been the guest of Mrs. G. L. Bandy.
She left for her home Saturday.

Quite a number of young folks are being delightfully entertained to an all day party given at the beautiful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Bate Washington today.

A. R. Suter, of Owenton, arrived Friday and is a guest at the Head House.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nevitt, who have been in Louisville for several days, returned home Thursday.

Wanted your veal, calves, lambs, fat pigs, poultry, eggs, butter, hides, wool and cotton. Irvington Produce Co.

Misses Eva Payne and Eva Neafus are visiting friends in Louisville.

Mrs. E. W. Graves was returned home after a visit in Louisville.

Mrs. Julia Clarkson came over from Big Spring last week to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. H. Kemper, for a month.

Miss Bassie Bentley opened a kinder-garden in one of the rooms at the Public School on last Monday morning.
She had ten little tots. Miss Bentley is a fine young lady and very competent of teaching the children.

A brilliant social event of the past week was the entertainment given by Mrs. H. H. Kemper at her home on Church Ave. The house was decorated with spring flowers carrying out the color scheme, pink and white. Delicious refreshments were served.

Miss Theodora Pulliam, of Louisville, spent the week end with her sister, Mrs. A. D. Pulliam.

The Misses McGlothian gave a dinner Tuesday evening. Covers were laid for eight.

Mrs. S. P. Parks left Monday for Frankfort, where she will join her husband, Dr. S. P. Parks, who is attending Legislature.

Mrs. Virginia Calhoun, of Owensboro, was the guest of relatives in the city last week.

The Ladies Missionary Society met with Mrs. Nora Halliday Monday afternoon at her home on Woodland Ave.
The meeting was a very enjoyable one.

Mrs. Lucretia Cox entertained Monday afternoon with a delightful children's party to celebrate the seventh birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Katherine Cox. The house was beautifully decorated and refreshments were served. Mrs. Cox had as her guests;
Miss Katherine Cox, Margaret Jolly,
Elizabeth Cain, Queeny Cain, Bertha

Foote, Erie Smith and Forence McCoy.

Clarence McGlothian, who has been spending his vacation here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. N. McGlothian, leaves Thursday for his home at San Francisco, Cal. He leaves in a few weeks for Los Angeles, where he has accepted a position in the Order Department with the largest Hardware house in the West, The Pacific Hardware & Steel Co.

John D. Babbage was in town Saturday in the interest of his paper, The Breckenridge News.

The Building and Loan Association have let the contract for five houses to be erected in the residence portion of the city. Mr. J. K. Bramlette has the contract and work will begin at once.

Mrs. R. M. Jolly will leave this week for Lima, Ohio, where she will visit her mother for some time.

Has Splendid Business.

L. H. Downs of the Irvington Produce Co., was down at his branch house at Madisonsville last week and shipped a car load, 18,000 pounds, dressed poultry. He says his business out of that town is fine. M. L. Downs is a hustler and if there are any poult or eggs in sight, he generally lands them.

Poultry—Hens, 13 and 14c. per lb.; roosters, 75c; young chickens, 15 @ 90c; ducks, 15c; turkeys 19c;
geese 9c.

Hogs—Tops $10.00 pigs $8.35 @ $0.35
roughs $9.15

Sheep and Lambs—Best lambs 6
@ 75c; seconds 5 @ 5 1/2c fat sheep
3.50 @ 45c

HICKORY GROVE

Our school closed Friday Feb. 18th after a very successful term of six months, taught by Miss May Watting-ton. A very delightful program was rendered by the pupils. Those forward premium were: Hattie Carmine, Elsie Lewis, Irene Johnson and Estill E.
Davis. A nice treat was thoroughly enjoyed by all. Mr. Sidney Johnson, the trustee, gave an excellent talk, saying it was the desire of all the patrons for Miss Wattington's return next term. Students adjourned with teacher and pupils in tears.

A Reader.

W. H. BOWMER, President
F. L. LIGHTFOOT, Vice-President

A. B. SKILLMAN, Cashier
O. T. SKILLMAN, Ass't Cashier

THE OLD RELIABLE BRECKINRIDGE BANK

Cloverport, Ky. Organized 1872

38 years of honorable dealing to its credit. It has passed through three panics and paid every legitimate claim to its full amount on demand. Never scalped a check.

An absolutely Safe Place to do Business. 3 per cent on Time Deposits

DIRECTORS:
A. B. Skillman, Conrad Simons, F. L. Lightfoot, W. H. Bowmer
Jno. C. Jarboe, O. T. Skillman, A. R. Fisher

Louisville Market Report

Louisville, March 8, 1910.—(Special.)
Wheat—No. 2, Red and Longberry,
$1.20 @ $1.23.

Corn—No. 2, white, 65c

Oats—No. 2, mixed, 49c

Eggs—Market quite, case count 21
candied 28c.

Poultry—Hens, 13 and 14c. per
lb.; roosters, 75c; young chickens, 15 @ 90c; ducks, 15c; turkeys 19c;
geese 9c.

Hogs—Tops $10.00 pigs $8.35 @ $0.35
roughs $9.15

Sheep and Lambs—Best lambs 6
@ 75c; seconds 5 @ 5 1/2c fat sheep
3.50 @ 45c

BEWLEYVILLE.

If you want the best flour buy the Lewisport BEST patent flour.

Edgar Hardaway and Winfield Scott are visiting relatives at Frankfort.

Miss Essie Kendall, of Webster, and

FOR SALE!

Northern White and Mixed Oats for seeding and feed, also Corn, Timothy and Clover Hay, Cotton Seed Meal, Brich and Coal at Lowest market prices. Your patronage solicited.

Heston, Whitworth & Company

Incorporated

At the Depot Hardinsburg, Ky. C. C. BROCK, Manager

King brothers, of Irvington, visited Miss Alberta Drury Sunday.

Mrs. B. S. Wilson left Tuesday for an indefinite stay with her daughter, Mrs. Gill, of Hewitt, Oklahoma.

Pete Smith and Miss Alice Carwin, of Goston, spent Sunday with Miss Ada Stith.

Mrs. T. J. Jolly, who has been ill of grip for several weeks, is improving.
Dr. P. W. Foote, our delegate elect, attended State Farmers Institute week at Frankfort.

G. A. Foote is on the sick list.

Mrs. Ben McCoy has returned from two week's visit to her daughter, Mrs.
Will Corley, of Anchorage.

Miss Blanch Jolly received the high est per cent. in examination for enumerator. We take it that the position is hers and extend congratulations.

It is Now Time to Think About Buying Your Easter Suit

Only Three weeks now until Easter, so get busy. I have a complete line of New Spring Suits, all the Latest Styles and Weaves will be found here for the young and old.

Suits from $5 to $20 will be found in my line.

I handle the celebrated A. B. Kirschbaum line that will suit the most fastidious dressers.

Ladies' Trimmed Hats
I carry a nice assortment of Ladies' Trimmed Hats at popular prices and can save you money on them.

Men's Hats
All the latest styles &

colors in Hats for Men and Boys from $1 to $4.00

Do not forget my White Sale that is going on this week;
Big line of White Goods and reduction on all White Goods this week. Do not miss it.

I have the largest and most complete stock of shoes in Irvington and it will be to your interest to see it before buying your spring shoes. I handle the Star Brand of shoes which are solid leather and are beauties

Big line of Muslin
Underwear for sale
this week.

ED. F. ALEXANDER

IRVINGTON,

KENTUCKY